Ken has also continued to follow developments relating to the release of the OSS documents to the National Archives. The memo of understanding has been revised by OGC and will be forwarded to NARS for concurrence.

State Department historians had requested a list of publicly released NIEs and SNIes; IPD will provide a print-out for them. Two of the State historians will be coming to our office on 16 April to review documents for the period of January to June 1963 and to read our history of the Vietnam coup in November 1963.

Jack Smith has begun editing the chapter in the Helms history dealing with the Intelligence Community. He has devised a way to finesse the codeword problem.

[]

STAT

Bob has talked once with [] about counterintelligence in the Helms period. Bob also attended the White House welcoming ceremony for the President of the Dominican Republic.

[]

STAT

[] attended the Effective Employee course at OTE. She missed the last of the four days and is exploring the possibility of making it up at another running of the course.
